Moscow, April 4.

SEVERAL Couriers are arrived here from Constantinople, Vienna, and London, within these few Days; and tho' the Great Chancellor, Count Bestucheff, is not perfectly recovered of his late Illness, yet he has constantly assisted at the Councils that have been held upon the Arrival of the Dispaches brought by those Couriers. On Wednesday last her Imperial Majesty, accompanied by the Great Duke and Great Dutchess, and attended by several Lords and Ladies of the Court, honoured her Great Huntsman, Count Rasomdsky, with her Presence at Dinner, at his Country Seat about five Wersts from this City.

Leghorn, April 9. They write from Genoa, that the Inhabitants of several Villages in the Neighbourhood of that City have taken up Arms, and absolutely refuse to pay any longer the heavy Taxes with which they are charged; and that the Government were thereupon taking proper Measures, in order, if possible, to bring them to a Compliance with the Laws of their Country, and to make them more dutiful Subjects for the Future.

Rome, April 14. The Duke and Dutchess of Wirtembourg, who went on a Tour to Naples, are expected back To-morrow, in order to assist at the Ceremonies used here in Passion-Week. The Hereditary Prince of Anspach is perfectly recovered, but as yet no Day is fixed for his leaving this City. They write from Venice, that upon Advice received there, that the Turks were in Motion in Dalmatia, the Government have dispatched Orders to the Governors and Commandants of all the fortified Places belonging to the Republick, to keep constantly on their Guard, in order to prevent any Surprize.

Montpellier, April 14. The Marquess de Cursay, heretofore Commander of the French Troops in Corsica, is still here, but 'tis thought he will shortly obtain Leave to return to Paris, in order to justify himself from the several Accusations laid to his Charge.

[ Price Two-Pence. ]

Stockholm, April 18. The King's Ague and Fever continues, but the Queen is perfectly recovered, and advances happily in her Pregnancy. The Baron de Fuche, Governor of this City, and the Countess de Hoorn, Spouse to the Grand Marshal of the Court, both died last Week in this City.

Vienna, April 18. Last Saturday the Emperor was seized with a shivering Fit, which being followed with a slight Fever, he was blooded by Way of Precaution, and is still confined to his Apartment. On Monday a Council of State was held on some Dispatches received from London, at which the Empress assisted in Person. The same Day Prince Esterhasi, late Ambassador from this Court to that of Naples, arrived here from Italy, and Yesterday he was introduced to her Imperial Majesty, and met with a gracious Reception. They are hard at Work in getting ready the late Prince Eugene's Apartments for the Residence of the Archduke Joseph and his future Spouse, and 'tis reckoned they will be finished by the End of next Month.

Liege, April 22. The Prince Cardinal, our Bishop, having declared his Intention of removing on Tuesday next to the Castle of Seeting for the Summer, they are making the necessary Preparations at that Palace for his Reception.

Hambourg, April 24. We have just received Advice, that the greatest Part of the Town of Jassy, Capital of Moldavia, is reduced to Ashes by a Fire that lately broke out there, and continued burning for 24 Hours, during which the Palace of the Hospodar, several Roman Catholick Churches, the Lutheran Church, the Greek Church, and several other publick Buildings, were entirely consumed; the Flames spreading so fast, that even the yearly Contributions of the Inhabitants to the Grand Signior, which were lodged in the Hospodar's Palace, and which amounted to a considerable Sum, could not possibly be saved.

Berlin, April 24. The King has conferred the Regiment of Cuirassiers of the late Major General Stille, on Major General Baron Schonaich; and Baron Schonaich's Regiment of Dragoons

Dragoons is given to Major General Count Truchſes. On Thurſday Morning laſt his Majeſty, accompanied by ſeveral General Officers, went to view the Regiment of Fuſiliers of Wirtemberg, and that of Foot of Forcade; they were drawn up under Arms, and his Majeſty was extremely pleaſed with their Appearance. The King being informed that the Margravine of Brandenberg-Bareith was greatly indiſpoſed, ordered immediately his Firſt Phyſician, Dr. Cothenius, to attend her. The two Counts Mitzinſky, who have been here for ſome Time, ſet out on Friday laſt on their Return to Poland.

Paris, April 25. The Marriage of the Prince of Conde with Mademoiſelle de Soubiſe, is to be celebrated on the 4th of next Month in the Caſtle of Marly; and that of the Count de la Marche, eldeſt Son of the Prince of Conty, with one of the Princeſſes of Modena, is expected to take Place ſoon after; and the rather, as we are aſſured the Marriage-Articles are already ſettled. We hear the Parliament has laid before the King the Contents of their new Remonſtrances, ſo that 'tis expected his Majeſty will ſhortly appoint a Day for their delivering thoſe Remonſtrances in Form. They write from Provence, that his Majeſty's Ship the Flora arrived laſt Week in the Road of Toulon, with all the Tranſports from Corſica; and that the Troops were ſince landed, and on their March to the reſpective Quarters aſſigned them in that Province.

Bruſſels, April 26. Prince Charles of Lorrain, our Governor-General, accompanied by ſeveral of the Nobility, went Yeſterday to take the Diverſion of Hunting in the Neighbourhood of Ter-Vuren. His Highneſs took a Tour laſt Week to Machlin, and was preſent at a Proof that was made of ſeveral Pieces of Cannon of a new Invention, which anſwered to the entire Satisfaction of the Inventor, and of all the Spectators. On Sunday Night laſt Count Sinzendorff arrived here from the Hague.

Duſſeldorp, April 27. Prince Frederick of Deux Ponts has reviewed, Yeſterday and to Day, all the Troops in this Garriſon; and on Wedneſday next 'tis believed he will ſet out for Juliers, in order to review the ſeveral Regiments quartered in that Dutchy.

Hague, May 2. Yeſterday the Marqueſs de Bonac, the French Ambaſſador, made his publick Entry into this Place with the greateſt Splendor; and though the Concourſe of People through which the Cavalcade paſſed, was ſurprifingly great, we do not hear of the leaſt Accident. To Day his Excellency dined with Prince Maurice, where he received the Compliments of the Lords of the Regency; and next Thurſday he will have his firſt publick Audience of their High Mightineſſes, to which he will go in the ſame State as he made his publick Entry. This Morning Meſſ. Dyk, Schuylenbourg, Raadt, and Boudaan, took their reſpective Seats in the Committee of the Council of this Province, the firſt on the Part of Haerlem, the ſecond on the Part of Delft, the third on the Part of Leyden, and the fourth on the Part of Amſterdam.
